The Ellsworth board of registration will be in session at the aldermen's room in Hancock hall Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, and Monday of next week, from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. No new names will be received after 5 p. m. Saturday.

A school of instruction was held with Wm. H. H. Rice relief corps last Thursday afternoon, under direction of Department Inspector Sarah A. Putnam. Bluehill corps sent a delegation of about twenty-five, and many were present from neighboring towns. A picnic dinner was served at noon.

Cards have been received in Ellsworth announcing the marriage this evening, at Colorado Springs, Colo., of Miss Marjorie Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Masi, to Lieut. Martyn Hall Shute, U. S. A. Lieut. and Mrs. Shute will be "at home" after Nov. 15 at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming.

Fred P. Haynes and Miss Helen M. Giles, daughter of Arthur K. Giles, of West Ellsworth, were married Monday forenoon at the Grant house on Laurel street, where they will reside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. W. Sutton, in the presence of a few relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left at noon for a wedding trip to Boston.

An Ellsworth boy—more strictly speaking, an Ellsworth Falls boy—has just been accorded new honors in Massachusetts. James N. Thompson, of Faneuil, Mass., was elected one of the presidential electors from Massachusetts, at the recent republican state convention. "Jim" Thompson—for he is "Jim"—to his old Ellsworth friends as he is to his intimates in Massachusetts—was born at Ellsworth Falls where he learned the blacksmith's trade with Elias Saunders. When a young man, about forty-four years ago, he moved to Massachusetts. He was a poor boy then, but by diligent effort and strict attention to business he now occupies a prominent place in the business world, and worth a fortune estimated at half a million dollars. He has been strongly identified with the improvement of real estate in his city. He has always been a republican, and has served with distinction in the Massachusetts legislature. He was a delegate to the republican national convention four years ago.

The Helpsomehow society had an enjoyable meeting at the home of its treasurer, Miss Winnie Southards, on East Maple street, last evening. Games were played and contests that were puzzlers amused the gathering. The refreshments of water and cocoa were delicious. Two new members were added, and after a sing, the society adjourned to meet with Mrs. Rodney Higgins on the second Tuesday in November.

Rev. P. A. Hayes left Friday for his new charge at Dover, Foxcroft, Henderson, Milo and Bangorville. He will live in Milo. Rev. Charles J. Cassidy, who succeeds him in St. Joseph's parish, has entered upon his duties here. Fr. Cassidy for some time has been assistant priest to Father John O'Dowd at the Church of the Sacred Heart in Portland. He is a Portland man having grown to manhood in that city. His first studies for the priesthood were made in Epiphany Apostolic college at Highland Park, Baltimore, Md. Later he pursued his theological studies at Allegheny college, N. Y., and entered the Grand Seminary at Montreal, Can., where he was ordained to the priesthood some years ago. Since his ordination Father Cassidy has served as curate in several parishes through the State, including St. Mary's at Bath, St. Joseph's at Lewiston, St. Mary's at Augusta, St. Theresa's at Brewer, and the Sacred Heart church in Portland. In every parish where he has served he has made hosts of friends.

A hallowe'en social will be given in the Baptist vestry to-morrow evening. The affair is under the direction of Mrs. Stanley J. Stewart, and various committees are making elaborate preparations that the celebration may be as weird and as enjoyable as possible. The decorations will be a special feature. These are in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. Rodney Higgins. The "witches' cafe" will be looked after by the refreshment committee, Mrs. Abbie Cushman, chairman, while the entertainment committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Everett Quinn, is to present a program of novelties that will keep the crowd busy in more ways than one. The different committees will be dressed in costumes suggested by the traditions of hallowe'en. There will be a ghost parade. Contests of various kinds will be arranged, and prizes awarded. Those who attend are requested to bring pencils. The candy table will be in charge of the Three C. class. The exercises will close with a "jack-o'-lantern" auction. The entertainment is under the auspices of the social circle, and the proceeds are for the benefit of the church.

CITY MEETING.

New Hydrant Wanted on Water Street—Road Hearing.

A recess meeting of the city government was held last Wednesday evening. Mayor Simonton was in the chair; aldermen present, Stockbridge, Estey, Hagan and Staples.

George H. Grant addressed the board in relation to establishing a fire hydrant at East Maple and Water streets, saying it would result in the material reduction of insurance rates in that locality. The matter was referred to the committee on highways.

Frank M. Wentworth, Harold Wentworth and William H. Rankin appeared before the board in opposition to the proposed discontinuance of a portion of the road leading from the Stabawl road to the Waltham road. They produced letters from other objectors. Further hearing was deferred until the next regular meeting.

The city clerk was instructed to notify the Bar Harbor & Union River Power Co. to have a new drinking fountain in the square at Ellsworth Falls, in place of the one now there, which is worn out and will not hold water.

A petition from the Commercial Union Telegraph Co. for permission to move its wires from the east to the west side of Water street and the Bay side road, in order to keep them away from the power line, was granted.

Ald. Jordan and Estey were empowered to make settlement with Mrs. B. B. McFarland in her claim for damages due to alleged defect in sidewalk.

Ald. Hagan was instructed to have the Bangor bridge repainted at once.

Roll of accounts No. 3 for fighting forest fires was passed and committed to collector Brennan for payment. The roll amounts to about $500 and brings the total cost to Ellsworth for fighting forest fires this year up to something like $2,100.

Adjourned.

Fourth-Class Postmasters at Bangor.

To-day and to-morrow the Maine league of postmasters of fourth-class offices will hold their third annual session at Bangor. The meetings will be held at the board of trade rooms in City hall this forenoon and afternoon, and to-morrow forenoon.

The programs include addresses by Postmaster Oak and Mayor Woodman, of Bangor, Congressman-elect Guernsey; a theatre party this evening and a trip to the University of Maine.

ELLSWORTH FALLS.

Frank L. Heath was in Bar Harbor Monday and Tuesday on business.

John R. Nevils, of Bar Harbor, has been here for several days with friends.

Misses Radie and Mary Jordan, of Waltham, visited relatives here last week.

Fred Moore and family were in Eden last week, guests of Mrs. Moore's brother.

Thomas Grindell, of Bath, came Tuesday, called here by the death of his father, E. P. Grindell.

E. A. Lowell and wife were here over Sunday, guests of Mrs. Lowell's mother Mrs. Salena Lord.

Reuben F. Remick and wife have returned from Bar Harbor, where they have been for two weeks.

Mrs. Helen Thomas, of Eden, returned home Saturday, after visiting here for two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Edward F. Lord.

Mrs. Charles M. Whitcomb returned home Saturday from Cleveland, O., where she has been for four weeks visiting her father, Reuel Whitney.

Arthur Foster, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. A. E. Foster, returned home Saturday from the Eastern Maine general hospital, where he has been for an operation for appendicitis.

The ladies who have been earning dollars met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Ellis, the meeting netting $33. The afternoon was very pleasantly passed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. N. C. Ayer left on Thursday of last week for Lincoln, where she joined Mr. Ayer for a week's visit with his parents. From there they go to Kineo for the winter, where Mr. Ayer will have a crew engaged in building a cottage and a store.

E. P. Grindell died Monday morning at his home here, at the age of seventy-three years. Mr. Grindell had been in failing health for some time past, and his death, although deeply regretted, was not unexpected. He was a man well liked and had many friends. He was twice married. The second wife survives him, also two daughters—Mrs. Ralph Cushman and Mrs. George C. Austin, and two sons—Thomas Grindell, of Bath, and Eugene Grindell, now in Idaho. A daughter and son by the first marriage are also living—Miss Carrie Grindell, of Massachusetts, and Ernest Grindell, of Sedgewick. Mr. Grindell leaves one sister—Miss Ruth Grindell, of Bangor, and two brothers—Ira Grindel, of Bluehill, and Joseph Grindel, now in New Hampshire. Funeral services were held at the house Wednesday morning at 10.30, Rev. J. D. Prigmore officiating.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week
Beginning Nov. 1, 1908.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.
Topic.—Songs of the heart.—VI. The sleepless watcher.—Ps. cxxi. Consecration meeting.

It has been said that the One Hundred and Twentieth Psalm is one of complaint, while the one before us is one of comfort and consolation. In this psalm the writer forgets his distresses or overcomes them by "lifting his eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help." The hills were the hills of Zion, the location of the temple, the special abode of God Himself; hence the psalmist means that he was really looking to God, and, moreover, he adds, "My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth."

The protection of God is amply set forth throughout the entire psalm and by various figures. In the fifth verse he says: "The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade (protector) upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day nor the moon by night." They were to be free from sunstrokes and the deleterious effects of the moon's rays by night. Some have doubted such injuries of the moon, but modern travelers have proved that bad effects do follow sleeping in the moonlight in hot countries. When the full facts are known the Bible is always proved to be true. It always will be. "The Lord shall preserve thy soul"—keep us in temptations to evil. "The Lord shall preserve thee * * * forevermore"—for time and for eternity. These declarations of the psalmist are all true. Our God is both able and willing to do all that is here set forth. The only condition is our willingness to trust Him that "He may bring it to pass."

The supreme thought of the psalmist selected for our consideration is that the Lord is a sleepless watcher and keeper. "He that keepeth thee shall neither slumber nor sleep." There are sweet comfort and satisfaction in this fact that God is a sleepless watcher. Neither by day nor by night is He unconscious of our cry. How often a child becomes restless at night and, filled with fear in the dark, cries out, "Are you awake, mamma?" And when the answer comes back, "Yes, dear," how the little brain and heart are comforted and soon find rest in sleep! Mamma is awake. Why should she fear? Children of God, Christian Endeavorers, your Heavenly Father is always awake. Why should you fear? There is no need unless you have offended Him and are not on good terms with Him, and even then if you cry to Him in penitence how ready he is to hear you! No sound is so sweet to the ear of our Heavenly Father as the cry of the penitent, and He is willing to forgive and able to forget, which we cannot do, the sin that has separated us from Him. Let us only fear to offend God, and then we may "lay ourselves down and sleep in peace," because He who never slumbers watches over us.

BIBLE READINGS.

Ps. iv, 8; I Sam. xvi, 1-7; Amos. ix, 2-4; Matt. x, 26-29; Ps. cxlvi, 1-3; xxvii, 1-14; xxxi, 1-6; xxxvii, 1-11; Matt. vi, 24-34; lxxvii, 1-7.

With a New Zeal.

I would recommend that we labor with a new zeal this year.

First.—By stirring up the fires of Endeavor wherever they require it. For various reasons there are not a few societies which need a new baptism of life and enthusiasm, and it should be our special aim to study how to poke up their embers into a blaze of enthusiasm among the young.

Second.—By heaping up fresh fuel upon the old fires in all parts of the land. The baptism of God's own Spirit, the baptism of heavenly fire, should be sought for every one of our 700 societies. A new love for the Master, a fresh passion for His word, a mighty yearning for the salvation of souls and an all absorbing eagerness to build up the local church—this is the fuel which all our Endeavor societies specially need in order that they may carry the fire of God's all consuming love unto all who come in contact with them.

Third.—By starting new Endeavor fires wherever possible. There are many places within your reach and mine where Christian youths are lying helpless and useless who could be converted into new sources of power for the cause of Christ and humanity by being organized into Christian Endeavor societies. Why should not every society study the field around it and carry its message of light and its fire of life into neighboring villages and towns? Let us treble the number of societies this year, and thus brighten the flame of our own lamps by kindling others.

And let us do this not ultimately for the cause of Christian Endeavor, but for Christ and for the furtherance of the great kingdom of righteousness which He has established. Let us remember that Christian Endeavor finds greatest prosperity when it does not obtrusively seek its own and when it is the eager handmaid of God's own church.—Rev. J. P. Jones, President India C. E. Union.

"Heart Failure" and "Pledge Failure." The heart of Christian Endeavor is in the first clause of the pledge.

"Heart failure," the cause often assigned for death, is only a confession of ignorance. So with "pledge failure." Back of that is usually the failure of the executive committees, the secretary, the lookout committee, and so on.

A Safety Valve.

The more Christian Endeavor societies the safer the republic.—Governor Stuart of Pennsylvania in Patriotic Address at Reading State Convention.

Mutual Benefit Column.

EDITED BY "AUNT MADGE."

Its Motto: "Helpful and Helpful."

The purposes of this column are succinctly stated in the title and motto—it is for the mutual benefit, and aims to be helpful and helpful. Being for the common good, it is for the common use—a public servant, a purveyor of information and suggestion, a medium for the interchange of ideas. In this capacity it solicits communications, and its success depends largely on the support given it in this respect. Communications must be signed, but the name of writer will not be printed except by permission. Communications will be subject to approval or rejection by the editor of the column, but none will be rejected without good reason. Address all communications to

THE AMERICAN,
Ellsworth, Me.

CHOICE.

Not what we have, but what we use.
Not what we see, but what we choose;
These are the things that make or bless,
The sum of human happiness.

The thing nearby, not that afar;
Not what we seem, but what we are;
These are the things that make or break,
That give the heart its joy or ache.

Not what seems fair, but what is true;
Not what we dream, but good we do;
These are the things that shine like gems,
Like stars in fortune's diadems.

Not as we take, but as we give,
Not as we pray, but as we live;
These are the things that make for peace,
Both now and after time shall cease.

—The Outlook.

Dear M. B. Friends:

This poem, sent by S. S. for the column, is a sermon in itself, and each line is a text which might be enlarged upon with profit. Take the first thought, "Not what we have, but what we use."

That is the true test. What are we doing with the information we have gathered up in the passing years? What are we doing with the books we have gathered together? What practical ideas we have learned by observation, are we putting into practice? What treasures of heart or mind or possession have we stored away just for the sake of having them? Do you realize what this "mutual benefit" is doing for us? Look back eight or ten years. Isn't there a change in our lives since then? We have been "raising" what we scarcely knew we possessed. Shall I name some of the things? We have written out the thoughts we used to have, and shared them with others. They have been used not only by the writer who sent them, but they have awakened thought in others.

One and another have told of the ways they had of doing different kinds of work, others have adopted their ways and made use of them. We have shared our knowledge of authors, our opinions of their books or poems. In short, using that which we have acquired, means development. I want you to notice the second line in each stanza; they are each most significant, and living up to the standard they represent, one could not fail to be sincere—a quality worth attaining.

Dear Aunt Madge and Mutuals:

I think Aunt Maria gave the absent ones a good description of our fourth annual reunion. It is certainly delightful to spend one day of the year in the Wyman cottage, and there were many expressions of hearty appreciation to the hostess for her efforts to provide such a good time, and the occasion certainly will go on record as one of the red letter events of the annals of the M. B.'s.

Charity, Esther, Ah and B. E. S. met with us for the first time. We were sorry to find Dell so troubled and anxious concerning the forest fire which was raging so near her home, but now the danger is past, I hope she will spend many happy years in her nice house and be able to meet with us at our next picnic.

Me, are you lost, strayed or stolen from your far-away western home? We were asking about you, but no one could give any definite information; it was even surmised that you had a new name. We are still interested in you. Won't you give us one of your nice long, interesting letters? O. K. has lost none of her interest in the column, although she was deprived, by ill health, of the pleasure of our picnic. I told her all about it and gave her the beautiful flowers which Aunt Maria permitted us to take to our homes. I kept them fresh and beautiful for our church the following Sunday, and they were greatly admired.

I have been away on a vacation and had the pleasure of telling N. L. H. all that I know about the clan. She had lots of questions to ask, because she has never been to the reunion you know. I think we will soon have a letter from her.

I know the greater part of the M. B.'s live on farms. How about a name for the home or the farm? We call ours "The Overlook." It was suggested by the broad, extensive view which we have. Those of us who haven't already selected an appropriate one had better utilize some of these long cold evenings in the choosing of a good name. The naming of a home or farm should be based on natural surroundings and conditions; that is, the names should "fit." For instance, it is ridiculous to name a place "Shady Nook" when there isn't a bit of shade within a mile; or to call a farm "Cherry Hill" when it possesses neither cherries nor hill. I will send a list that was published in Farm Journal a few years ago; perhaps somewhere in the list you may find a suggestion which may be worked into a fitting name for your own place.

Now, Aunt Madge, when letters are scarce and you want something to fill up, you may be glad of even this:

Apple Grove, Ashland, Brookside, Big Rock, Beech Grove, Broadmoor, Beechland, Briar Ranch, Bayside, Cloverdale, Cool Creek, Cedar Hill, Cherry Hill, Crystal Springs, Creekdale, Clear View, Charter Oak, Crystal Lake, Elm View, East View, Echo Farm, Fair Dale, Fenwood, Fern Cottage, Forest Grove, Fair Lawn, Fair Oaks, Fairmont, Greendale, Glendale, Grassmere, Greenfield, Greendale, Hope Farm, Hillside Home, Hickory Grove, Hedge Lane, Hillcrest, Hill View, Hill Top, Home Farm, Ingleside, Idlewild, Lake View, Locust Hill, Linden Hall, Lake Home, Lindenwood, Locust Lane, Mt. Proof is inexhaustible that
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carries women safely through the Change of Life.

Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson,
304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio,
writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was passing through the Change of Life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches, and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better, and I can again do my own work. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Another of the reunionists has given us a nice letter. Thanks to you, H. O. B. We have not forgotten how you, with others of like compassion, lightened the load on our homeward way by climbing a long hill, that it might be easier for the horses.

We are all sorry for O. K. that by ill health she is deprived of so many enjoyments, and also sorry that one of our number who each year has made special preparation, like our hostess, for our picnic dinner, is again stricken with disease. We all extend our sympathy to Day and her household.

Intended to say that the list of names was so good we will all enjoy looking them over and perhaps select one.

Editor M. B. Column:

In a recent issue of your paper L. E. S. had a recipe for filled cookies. I have given it away unintentionally, and would so much like to have it again. Although living in Knox county for the present, Hancock is my home and I look forward from week to week for THE AMERICAN. Have a great many M. B. recipes, and they are fine. I wish you would get out an M. B. cook book.

Welcome to the niece in Knox county, and she shall have the recipe by letter. Some of you will remember the recipe for "sweethearts" which Eunice sent. Those were filled with jelly, so any that wish could use the same cookie recipe for both "fillings".

The following is the remainder of a clipping relating to Louise Chandler Moulton:

An English edition of her poems at this time was published by the Macmillans under the title, "Swallow Flights." The publication established her fame as a poet, and she had congratulatory letters from all the literary celebrities of the time, including Browning, Matthew Arnold, Austin Dobson and Edmund Gosse. Many of her songs were set to music, and another honor was given her by Lord Houghton, a round-table lunch, at which George Eliot and Kingslake were present, among others.

Since that time she was as well known in London as in Boston, and a part of each year saw her in a London home, surrounded by the famous men and women of all professions.

Her winter home in Rutland square, this city, was a "literary salon", where all the celebrities were entertained, whether actors, artists, musicians or authors. There also the literary aspirant was to be found.

An experience which many of her guests prized above all was to be shown her collection of presentation photographs and to hear her converse about the originals. The "real" Swinburne and William Watson and Thomas Hardy and George Meredith she marshalled before the minds' eyes of many of her friends.

For a long time she was the chief literary writer and book reviewer of the Herald.

Her husband died in 1888.

The list of her works is as follows:
"This, That and the Other," 1854; "Juno Clifford," 1855; "My Third Book," 1859; "Bed-Time Stories," 1873; "More Bed-Time Stories," 1874; "Some Women's Hearts," 1874; "Swallow Flights," poems, 1877; "New Bed-Time Stories," 1880; "Random Rambles," 1881; "Fire-light Stories," 1883; "Ourselves and Our Neighbors," 1887; "Miss Eyre from Boston and Other Stories," 1889; "In the Garden of Dreams," 1890; "Stories Told at Twilight," 1890; "Lazy Tours in Spain and Elsewhere," 1896; "In Childhood's Country," 1896; "At the Winds' Will," 1899; edited with biographies, "Garden Secrets," 1897; "A Last Harvest," by Philip Bourke Marston, 1891; "Collected Poems," by Marston, 1898; "Selections from the Poems of Arthur O'Shaughnessy," 1894.

She wrote reviews and literary letters for the New York Tribune, 1870-6, and for the Boston Herald, 1896-92.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Kuger, The Jeweler, 1089 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." Saturday, Nov. 7—Meeting of Hancock Pomona with East Bluehill grange.

HANCOCK POMONA.

Hancock Pomona grange met with New Century grange, Dedham, Oct. 24. The address of welcome was delivered by Worthy Master Colby, followed by the response by Sister Harriman, of Verona grange. An instructive and interesting paper was read by Sister Mary Burriel. The questions were ably discussed. Special mention should be made of the music furnished by New Century choir, which cannot be excelled by any in the county. About 200 patrons were present, including visitors from Green Mountain and Penobscot Pomona.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, WEST EDEN.

Mountain View grange held its regular meeting Friday evening with fifty-eight patrons present. There were visitors from Bay View, Pamola and Mariaville. Two new members were accepted, and four applications were received. The second degree was conferred on four candidates. The matter of building a grange hall was discussed, and it was finally decided to build a hall 32x50, two stories. The grange needs a hall very much, and it is hoped that the building may be soon on the lot which has already been donated by a brother. Worthy Deputy Foss was present, and his remarks on grange work were interesting and instructive.

PAMOLA, HANCOCK.

Pamola grange held its regular meeting Saturday evening, with about fifty-eight members and four visitors present. Two candidates were instructed in the first and second degrees. Program for next meeting will be a hallowe'en program.

RAINBOW, NORTH BROOKSVILLE.

Rainbow grange held a regular session on Oct. 22, with forty-five members present. The evening was pleasantly spent. There was a fine program. Visitors were present from Penobscot and East Bluehill granges.

LAMOINE.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.
Whereas, Death has again entered our ranks, removing our dearly beloved brother, John F. Lear, and causing a vacancy which brings sadness to all our hearts; and

Whereas, Bro. Lear, being ever desirous of obtaining knowledge, possessing a retentive memory, and ready to impart that knowledge to others, his presence was gladly welcomed in our meetings and his memory will ever be cherished; therefore

Resolved, That not only Lamoine grange but the entire community fully realize the loss it has sustained in the death of a good brother and citizen.

Resolved, That we extend to his son and family our deepest sympathy, and commend them to "Him that doeth all things well".

Resolved, That in appreciation of his worth, our charter be draped for thirty days, a copy of these resolutions spread on our records,

SEAGIRT, SOUTH DEER ISLE.

Seagirt grange met Saturday evening, Oct. 17, with a fair attendance. After business, the question, "What I would do if I were a farmer," was discussed by the sisters, and "What I would do if I were a housewife," was discussed by the brothers. The discussion was very interesting. There were readings by Katie Stanley, C. M. Port, Anthony Bye. A question was given for next Saturday evening for each individual to tell what animal was most useful to him. A harvest supper was appointed for Oct. 28.

HARVEST HOME, WEST ELLSWORTH.

Harvest Home grange, West Ellsworth, held its regular meeting Oct. 24. The overseer called the meeting to order and Manuel Gaspar was called to fill the chair. After business, the third and fourth degrees were given to one candidate. The program consisted of reading, speaking, songs and conundrums, and selections by the quartette. There were thirty-seven in attendance, and visitors from Lake View, Arbutus, Alamoosook and Dracut granges. Children's night will be observed next Saturday.

FLORAL, NORTH BUCKSPORT.

The members of Floral grange gave a supper for the benefit of the grange, Wednesday evening, Oct. 21, and the members fully sustained their reputation for preparing and serving fine suppers. No grange supper would be considered complete, of course, without baked beans, and for those who did not wish for beans there were salad dainties prepared, and pies and cakes innumerable. After supper there was a short program of songs and recitals by the school children, managed by their teacher, Miss Chipman. Quite a sum was realized from the supper, and the evening was much enjoyed by those present.

MARSAQUA, SOUTH BLUEHILL.

Marsaqua grange met Oct. 23, with about twenty-five present. After business, the lecturer presented her program as follows: Reading, Flora Hodgdon; recitation, Phoebe Candage; songs, Roy Henderson; recitation, Lula Maddox; reading, Alice Eaton. At recess supper was served.

HANCOCK S. J. COURT.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT FOR THE TERM YESTERDAY.

FRANK BALDASSARI PLEADED GUILTY TO MANSLAUGHTER AND SENTENCED TO TEN YEARS IN STATE PRISON.

THE COURT.
Presiding Justice—LUCILIUS A. EMERY, Ellsworth.
Clerk—JOHN F. KNOWLTON, Ellsworth.
County Attorney—CHARLES H. WOOD, Bangor.
Sheriff—BYRON H. MAYO, Ellsworth.
Crier—BENJAMIN LEACH, Bucksport.
Deputies—BENJAMIN LEACH, Bucksport; DAVID W. CANNON, Ellsworth; JAMES S. FARNOLD, Tremont; JOHN E. WHEATON, Bluehill; JOSEPH H. EATON, Stonington.
Stenographer—R. D. SMALL, Portland.
Messenger—HAMLIN MADDOCKS, Ellsworth.

Court finally adjourned for the October term yesterday afternoon. The disposition of the Baldassari murder case without trial, and the settlement of several important cases assigned for trial on the civil docket, materially shortened the term.

A large number of cases came off the civil docket—145 in all. There were seventy-six judgments or verdicts, eleven divorces decreed and two denied, and fifty-six entries of neither party, or dismissed. There were 122 new entries.

The criminal docket, with the exception of the Baldassari murder case, was cleared up last Wednesday afternoon, and court took a recess until Monday.

Several jail sentences were imposed. Frank Lawrence, the Indian who broke into cottages at Green Lake and Phillips Lake, was sentenced to two years in State prison. Chester Bunker, for breaking, entering and larceny, was sent to Bangor work jail for a year. E. A. Jewell, of Bar Harbor, received a jail sentence on two appealed liquor cases, which, combined, amount to ninety days, and also fines amounting to $150 and costs, $40, which if not paid will double his term of imprisonment.

The case against Harvey W. Morang, of Ellsworth, for violation of the Sunday law, was quashed because the complaint did not specifically state that the alleged unlawful act consisted of. The point was one on which there has never been a decision by the law court of Maine, but in a Massachusetts case very much in point, it was held that the complaint must allege specifically what the unlawful acts consisted of.

Monday was largely taken up with divorce hearings. There was also a hearing in the case of John A. Stuart vs. Ellsworth, which goes to the law court on report. Mr. Stuart sues to recover for services as driver of the horse cart and custodian of the Franklin street engine house, claiming he was not legally removed. The plaintiff bases his case largely on the claim that Ald. Stockbridge, upon his election as city treasurer, ceased to be an alderman and was not entitled to act as such.

DIVORCES DECREED.

The following divorces were decreed during the term:

Celia M. Peach, libellant, vs. William E. Peach, for adultery. E. S. Clark for libellant.

Redman N. Grant, libellant, vs. Ella M. Grant, for utter desertion. H. L. Crabtree for libellant.

Saville J. Thurston, libellant, vs. George W. Thurston, for intoxication. S. P. Mills for libellant.

George H. Richards, libellant, vs. Lottie M. Richards, for utter desertion. E. S. Clark for libellant.

Edith V. Tower, libellant, vs. Harvey L. Tower, for cruel and abusive treatment. E. S. Clark for libellant.

Edwin G. Frost, libellant, vs. Addie M. Frost, for adultery. L. F. Giles for libellant.

Haunah N. Bowden, libellant, vs. Harvey N. Bowden, for utter desertion. W. C. Conary for libellant.

Mina F. Turletotte, libellant, vs. Herchel H. Turletotte, for intoxication. D. E. Hurley for libellant.

William E. Kenniston, libellant, vs. Emma H. Kenniston, for utter desertion. C. H. Wood for libellant.

Vyra L. Thompson, libellant, vs. George A. Thompson, for utter desertion. C. H. Wood for libellant.

Charles Hammond, libellant, vs. Lavinia Hammond, for utter desertion. O. P. Cunningham for libellant.

TEN YEARS FOR BALDASSARI.

Frank Baldassari, indicted for murder, was arraigned yesterday forenoon. He was represented by D. E. Hurley, of Ellsworth, and E. P. Murray, of Bangor. Attorney-General H. E. Hamlin and County Attorney Wood appeared for the State. Baldassari, who is twenty-five years of age, shot and instantly killed his brother Antonio at their camp on Crotch Island, Stonington, on July 21 last.

Through his counsel, Baldassari pleaded guilty to manslaughter, which plea was accepted by the State. In moving for sentence, Attorney-General Hamlin reviewed briefly the circumstances of the case and the evidence which the State was prepared to produce.

Counsel for respondent produced six witnesses who testified as to the good character and peaceable conduct of the respondent during his residence in Stonington. Mr. Hurley outlined the evidence they were prepared to produce to show that Frank Baldassari was not the aggressor in the quarrel with his brother, and was acting on the defensive when he killed him. While counsel for respondent did not believe a jury would convict him of murder, they recognized their responsibility in the matter, and realized that there was a chance of conviction on the murder charge.

Chief Justice Emery, in passing sentence, said he appreciated what counsel must feel as to their responsibility, but he believed that responsibility had been well discharged on both sides. The prisoner was in great danger of conviction for murder; he believed counsel for respondent acted wisely in advising the plea of manslaughter, and that counsel for the State acted wisely in accepting the plea.

"But if the responsibility of counsel was great," Justice Emery continued, "how much greater now is mine. I must determine how many years to take out of this young man's life. I have to bear in mind two considerations—restraint upon this prisoner, and security of the public."

"I must assume from the plea and its acceptance by the State, that there was no malice in the killing, and by the same plea I must assume that the killing was not justifiable."

Justice Emery then imposed a sentence of ten years at hard labor in State prison.

THE AMERICAN has a circulation of 107 of the 117 post-offices in Hancock county. All the other papers in the County have a circulation of not more than 100. The AMERICAN is not the only paper printed in Hancock county, and has never claimed to be, but it is the only paper that can properly be called a COUNTY paper; all the rest are merely local papers. The circulation of THE AMERICAN, during the Bar Harbor Record's summer list, is larger than that of all the other papers printed in Hancock county.

FRANKLIN.

A news communication has been received from Franklin this week, but none of the writer did not accompany it. We are always pleased to receive items from any reliable source, but unless name of writer accompanies—not for publication, but for our information—they will not be printed.—Ed.

Mrs. H. F. Collins returned to Bangor Monday.

Mrs. C. J. Watson is visiting relatives in Portland.

Benjamin Crossley and wife are visiting friends in Boston.

Dr. S. S. DeBeck and wife enjoyed a trip to Bangor last week.

Percy Holbrook and wife are occupying the house vacated by Capt. Gott.

George Hardison and wife are at the family cottage here for a few weeks.

After an extended absence Roscoe Gay and wife are again at their pleasant home.

Mrs. Bertha Wilbur, with young daughter Charlotte, of Seal Harbor, is visiting her parents, Arthur Bunker and wife.

H. C. and E. S. Bunker have made great improvements in the outward appearance of their buildings. Such a favorable season as the present for outside work is rare.

Mrs. G. R. Hadlock, of Islesford, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Raymond Dwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwell have recently commenced housekeeping at their cottage on the Point.

Elmer Fernald is employed at the Daniel W. Crabtree farm, Martin's Ridge, making extensive repairs on some of the buildings.

The place has been sold recently to Col. Bass, of New York. Mr. Crabtree, who was the seventh son of the late George Crabtree, a pioneer settler, will, with his wife, remain at the homestead.

The teachers' meeting, held at the high school building Saturday, Oct. 24, was pronounced interesting and instructive to all who attended. Interesting papers were read by Mr. Bragdon and Mr. Knight, followed by a question box, conducted by the superintendent of schools.

Many questions of vital importance to pupil and teacher were ably answered by the several teachers present. The next meeting of this nature will take place Nov. 7 at 2 p. m. Parents and all others interested in the schools are urged to attend.

Subject for papers: "What is the best way to teach grammar?"

The Longer You Know Them the Better You Like Them.

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail you.

Ellsworth people know this.

Read this Ellsworth case.

Read how Doan's stood the test.

For many years.

It's local testimony and can be investigated.

Mrs. John Meader, living five miles west of Ellsworth, Me., says: "I was so well pleased with benefit I derived from Doan's Kidney Pills in 1902 that I gave a testimonial at that time recommending them, and I am now glad to say that I have no need of a kidney remedy since. For several years my back was weak and sore and I found it difficult to stoop or arise from a sitting position. I had sharp pains in my kidneys which felt like the thrust of a knife. The secretions were also very irregular in action and caused me added inconvenience. Until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Moore's drug store, nothing I tried did me any good. This remedy went directly to the seat of my trouble however, and brought a cure. My daughter who also complained of pains in her back, used Doan's Kidney Pills and was benefited just as greatly as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Walter Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Doan's Regulate cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.—Advt.

John Gilley is preparing a cellar foundation for J. T. Finney on his lot, and the partially built house purchased of Owen Lurvey will soon be moved and converted into a home. Mr. Finney raised a fine lot of potatoes and garden produce on his new land.

Dominique Gonzales, a former Spanish resident of Southwest Harbor, died last week at the Eastern Maine hospital, where he had been for more than two years as the result of an injury to his head. The interment was at Mt. Height cemetery. The case is peculiarly sad—a strong vigorous man stricken in the prime of life. Mr. Gonzales leaves a wife and four children.

The Congregational sewing circle, after two months' vacation, started into activity once more at the home of Mrs. Henry Trundy. The old homestead, although noted for its hospitality, beamed a warm welcome to a goodly number of circle members. A picnic supper was the order of the day, but when the guests gathered about the bountiful spread table it was found that the hostess had more than done her share toward the feast.

STONINGTON.

OBITUARY.

Died, Sept. 25, 1908, at the home of his parents at Stonington, Fred W. Barter, son of Oscar E. and the late Mary E. Barter, after a three-weeks' illness of typhoid fever, during which he was tenderly cared for by his father and stepmother, assisted by her niece, who did all that loving hands could do.

He had been employed for the past two years in the grocery store of J. F. West, but left there in the spring on account of poor health. He was a young man whom to know was to love, and he will long be remembered among his friends and acquaintances for his pleasant ways and kindly disposition. His age was twenty years, eight months, nine days.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational church, at Stonington, Rev. C. W. Robinson officiating. A profusion of floral offerings testified to the love and sympathy of his many friends. Interment was at West Stonington, by the side of his mother.

Free Advice on Chronic Diseases

Why suffer with your kidneys, catarrh, rheumatism, stomach trouble, female complaints, or nervous and wasting diseases of men any longer? Why let these diseases destroy your future life and happiness? Do not waste any more time or money experimenting, but call or write us to-day and learn just how thousands have been permanently cured, many of them no doubt your own townsmen, and who once suffered as you do to-day. We say to those who have tried and been betrayed by those seductive, persistent quacks and charlatans, or to those who have tried to be cured by electric belts, to let us show you our scientific method of treatment, which is used only by us, and has cured so many thousands in the last thirty-four years. Let us explain to you just what we will do for you for the asking. Those who have accepted and followed our free advice to-day are cured of the above diseases and many more. Why not be cured as well?

PLEASE ANSWER:

How long have you been ailing?
Is your tongue coated?
Are your bowels constipated?
Is there any pain in your back?
Do your kidneys bother?
Do you crave sweet or sour?
Do you sleep well?
Do you eat heartily?
Have you rheumatism?
Do you take cold easily?
Have you a cough?
Is there a dropping in your throat?

Answer all of the above questions carefully, then take another sheet of paper and write us fully all of the rest of your symptoms, and we will send you a careful diagnosis of your case and tell you just what to do to be cured, if curable, absolutely free.

Now For Rapid Fall Buying.

FALL MERCHANDISE.

hasn't been moving fast enough on account of the warm weather of the past few weeks. But move it must, and LOW PRICES is the lever that will do it.

M. GALLERT.

has the goods. The people want new things; he has them. Undoubtedly he has the best assortment of goods of a quality that wins recognition. His prices are as low as the lowest, and as low as a much inferior grade of goods is sold for by other dealers. He offers good merchandise at prices to defy all competition, no matter where the same exists. If you buy of him, you get what you pay for in measure, weight and quality. Everything he offers is up-to-date, and his resident buyers in New York and Boston are picking up every new thing which is offered and adapted for his trade. If you give him a chance to show you what he can do, you will readily recognize the difference between good merchandise and inferior goods.

He guarantees to deliver good merchandise at as low a price as inferior can be brought for. He has sold goods in this city for thirty-seven years, and has retained the confidence of the people.

This season he has made better preparation than ever to meet the demands of his customers. The people seem hungry for new things. M. Gallert is showing new things in every department.

Lace and Muslin Curtains.

Curtain Muslins by the yard, and Portieres, window shades and other house furnishing goods in assortment and prices which are lower than you expected to find.

OUR SHOE STORE.

When we mention this department, we get enthusiastic. We have a shoe store that is a shoe store in every sense of the word. From now on it will be under my personal supervision, both as regards buying and selling. We would sooner have shoes twice right than once wrong, and have therefore eliminated from our shelves every shoe that there can be shadow of doubt about, as to leather, workmanship or shape. We have selected only the best workshops to make our shoes. One-dollar shoes may look as well as a three-dollar shoe, but the customer needs to have the inside information as to leather and covered-up workmanship to get at the facts. We have left nothing undone, inside and out, in making up our shoes to give the most that can be gotten for the money the customer wants to spend. The assortment of SHOES FOR MEN, WOMEN, BOYS, MISSES and CHILDREN, now in stock, is without question the largest to be found in any one store.

NORTH PENOBSCOT.

Rev. H. B. Haskell, district superintendent, will hold a quarterly conference at the Bay Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Emerson, of Bluehill, and Miss Hattie Grindle, of Portland, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Valaria Gray.

Joshua Gross and Will Gray have been cutting Christmas trees in the pasture of J. M. Hutchins the past week. They will cut a car load or more here.

A merry party of fourteen schoolmates assembled at the home of Chandler and Crystal Hutchins Friday evening to celebrate their fourteenth birthday, each with kindly greetings and a token of friendship. It was a lively and enthusiastic crowd, and not a moment of time was wasted. Games were played with a joyous zest that only such young people realize. During the evening cake, candy and peanuts were disposed of, amid merry joke and ringing laughter.

OBITUARY.

Ellen, wife of John P. Haney, passed quietly away Sunday morning, after a long illness. More than five years ago the deceased showed signs of mental and physical weakening, and for the past three years she had been unable to attend to her household duties.

Mrs. Haney was born in Ellsworth in 1841, the daughter of Jonah and Sarah Heath. She was married to Mr. Haney in 1868, and in 1880 they moved to the farm where they have since resided. She leaves besides her husband, two children—Mrs. Clara Condon, of Boston and Dr. Oramel Haney, of Boothbay.

She had been a most faithful helpmeet to her husband, and together they have happily planned and worked, and by industry and economy have constantly added to the comforts and attractions of their home life and the beauty and value of their farm—be devoting his summers to farming and winters to teaching in the various towns in the western part of the county. He is widely known in the county as an instructor of decided talent, and an excellent disciplinarian, and had taught eighty-five terms, retiring at the age of sixty-five.

Mrs. Haney was a woman of rare worth, and widely esteemed for her many virtues. She was an ideal homemaker, and never left anything undone for the comfort and happiness of her family that her mind could devise or her hands do. Ever ready to assist others in illness or need, charitable towards their faults, ever with a kindly word for the good that blossomed in others along her pathway, faithful to her friends to the last, she exhibited the spirit of true Christianity and moral refinement from her girlhood. With her husband, when in health she was a constant attendant at the Methodist church, and ever ready to support it with their influence and finances. During her entire illness she was most tenderly and devotedly cared for by her husband, who in his declining years will most keenly feel his loss. The family has the sincere sympathy of friends and neighbors.

The funeral will take at their residence on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, p. m. Oct. 28.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is wet with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

LETTERS FROM WOMEN About Pe-ru-na.

MRS. CLARA L. MILLER.

MRS. S. L. JEWELL.

MRS. MAHALA REID.

The following testimonials represent actual experience of every-day life. They are the truthful utterances of women who have been ill and have found a reliable remedy in Pe-ru-na.

It means a great deal to the women of America to have at hand a remedy capable of giving such relief. Constipation, rheumatism, kidney trouble, bronchitis and a host of other catarrhal conditions are relieved by Pe-ru-na. At least this is what the women say. They have no object in saying such things, except to render truthful testimony to their suffering sisters.

Pe-ru-na is making such friends every day. It is the testimony of the people that has made Pe-ru-na so justly famous.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Mrs. Clara L. Miller, Box 71, Columbia Sta., Seattle, Wash., formerly vice president of Skoogay Country Club, writes: "Nine bottles of Pe-ru-na cured me of a protracted case of bronchitis. There is no superior remedy that I know of, as the action of Pe-ru-na on the vast motor system of nerves is very beneficial. It increases the tone of the system and aids nature to perform her functions."

"I have recommended it to a number of my friends, who speak in the same high terms of it. I have certainly found it a most efficacious medicine."

Nervous, Tired and Weak.

Mrs. Christina Smukalla, 480 Winslow Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I trust every one suffering from systemic catarrh will read this and profit by it."

"I was in a very bad condition indeed, when I began to take Pe-ru-na, and my friends as well as myself were very much alarmed over my condition. I was always nervous, could not sleep at night, my food did me no good, and I was always tired and weak. I tried several doctors, but found no relief."

"Finally I took two bottles of Pe-ru-na and felt like a different woman. However, I did not stop there, but kept on with it until I had taken several bottles, when I felt completely cured, and have remained so ever since. I can eat and sleep now."

BAR HARBOR.

Hugh Short, of Elgin, Ill., who has been in Bar Harbor two or three weeks as the guests of his nephew, D. E. Richardson, left Monday for a short visit at Amherst, after which he will return to Elgin. Mr. Short is a native of Aurora, and left the East forty-two years ago for Illinois, and has remained in the West ever since until this fall, when he desired to revisit his old home. This is Mr. Short's first visit to Bar Harbor since 1849, and he expressed great surprise at the strides the famous resort has made since that time, when the place was a small fishing hamlet of a very few houses. He is past eighty years. He is accompanied by his granddaughter, Mrs. Hattie Hanson, and his great-granddaughter, Margaret Hanson.

The remains of Mrs. Susan R. Searls, whose death occurred Friday morning at the home of her son, Thomas Searls, were taken to her home in Chelsea, Saturday. Mrs. Searls was sixty-seven years of age, and had been the guest of her son two or three weeks.

Nothing Good For Dyspepsia AND Stomach Troubles

Thomaston, Me., Sept. 15, 1906. "The true 'L. F.' Atwood's Bitters are our family medicine. My wife has used a number of different patent medicines, but has found nothing equal to the true 'L. F.' for dyspepsia and stomach troubles." Yours very truly, O. A. Robinson. The true 'L. F.' Atwood's Bitters are free from any harmful ingredient, and most beneficially on stomach and liver, removing congested conditions, regulating digestive ferments, cleansing, nourishing and recuperating. For nearly sixty years they have stood for health and happiness in thousands of homes. 35c. at dealers.
